

How to Guide the Gift in Your Child
Melanie Wilson, Ph.D., Psychowith6.com iHomeschool Studio, February 14, 2014

I. Understanding

- a. The Gift - National Association of Gifted Children
- b. The Excitabilities - Parenting Gifted Kids by James R. Delisle
 - i. Psychomotor
 - ii. Sensual
 - iii. Intellectual
 - iv. Imaginational
 - v. Emotional
- c. The Personalities – Personality Plus for Parents by Florence Littauer
 - i. The Popular Sanguine
 - ii. The Powerful Choleric
 - iii. The Perfect Melancholy
 - iv. The Peaceful Phlegmatic

II. Equipping

- a. The Gift – Homeschooling Gifted and Advanced Learners by Cindy West
- b. The Excitabilities
 - i. Psychomotor
 - ii. Sensual
 - iii. Intellectual
 - iv. Imaginational
 - v. Emotional
- c. The Personalities
 - i. The Popular Sanguine
 - ii. The Powerful Choleric
 - iii. The Perfect Melancholy
 - iv. The Peaceful Phlegmatic

III. Encouraging

- a. The Gift
- b. The Excitabilities
 - i. Psychomotor
 - ii. Sensual
 - iii. Intellectual
 - iv. Imaginational
 - v. Emotional
- c. The Personalities
 - i. The Popular Sanguine
 - ii. The Powerful Choleric
 - iii. The Perfect Melancholy
 - iv. The Peaceful Phlegmatic

Visit Psychowith6.com for links to local and online resources for homeschooling gifted children.